DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear what structure is being claimed. Are the pores aligned or not?

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2 and 10-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kuslich (US 5,549,679).

Kuslich discloses a method of treating a spinal disorder including: implanting a flexible and permeable filling member; and injecting a fill material or "pasty medicine" capable of solidification into the holding portion of the permeable member wherein bag 40 is woven or form-molded with a plurality of perforations that allow ingress and egress of fluids or solutions (Figs. 30-36, col. 6, lines 58-67, col. 7, lines 1-62 and col. 9, lines 10-67).

Kuslich discloses the perforations to have a size in a range of about 0.25 mm to 5 mm. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided perforations having a size in a range of about 0.1

mm, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Regarding claims 13 and 14, Kuslich discloses the fill material to be hydroxyapatite (col. 12, lines 12-23).

Regarding claim 16, Kuslich discloses a syringe formed of a barrel 90 and a plunger 96 (Fig. 35).

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments submitted under "REMARKS" in the response filed on March 9, 2007 have been considered. The Affidavit filed on March 9, 2007 has also been considered. However, Applicants' arguments are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
